'Father's Night' Held at Center Avenue School

The Center Avenue PTA held their regular "Father's Night" evening meeting recently in the school auditorium. The auditorium was festive with a gayly decorated Christmas tree and holly berries. The school chorus, composed of 4th, 5th and 6th graders, sang Christmas carols under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Friant. School children under the direction of Mrs. Richard Clark presented a Yuletide play, "The Candle in the Window." Mrs. Clark also enacted the role of "Miss Angelica."

Among other items of business, the association voted to purchase the school a table model radio as a Christmas gift. Mrs. G. Barnikel and Mrs. Ralph Heins were appointed to serve as a committee with Mrs. Charles Fitzgerald, honorary life membership chairman, to select the recipient for this honor. This membership will be presented to the person who has contributed the most toward child welfare and the community at the Founders' Day meeting in February. At the close of the meeting, everyone was invited to stay and enjoy the homemade pies and coffee provided by the board members.

PTA Executive Board to Meet Tomorrow

The Inglewood High School PTA executive board will meet tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Building 2, Room 304. Last minute plans for the international dinner to be held Jan. 30, will be discussed. Every board member and school representative is urged to attend.
